Re: Referendum Petition Against Ordinance 25-007

Ms. Kandell:

Enclosed for filing pursuant to California Elections Code is the referendum petition against Ordinance 25-007. A request for approved summary was filed on May 23, 2025. The City Attorney provided an approved summary on June 5, 2025.

A total of seventy-seven (77) petition sections, having one thousand, six hundred ninety-three (1,693) verified signers, are enclosed.

I am requesting that your office direct the County Elections Department to conduct a full review vs. random sample. Please note that your office gave this direction when verifying the referendum petition against Ordinance 20-022.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please contact me if you have any questions.

RECEIPT FOR FILING OF REFERENDUM PETITION

REFERENDUM AGAINST ORDINANCE NO.25-007 PASSED BY THE PACIFIC GROVE CITY COUNCIL ON MAY 21, 2025.

I have ascertained that the number of registered voters of Pacific Grove as last reported by the Monterey County Registrar of Voters to the Secretary of State is 10,601. In keeping with Elections Code Sections 9239 and 9210, I determine that the above referenced referendum contains, on its face, signatures from at least ten percent of the registered voters.

The referendum is accepted for filing and shall be examined by the Monterey County Registrar of Voters to ascertain whether or not the referendum contains valid signatures from the requisite number of registered voters in accordance with Elections Code Sections 9114 – full check.

No representation is made as to the adequacy of the referendum form or sufficiency of the signatures as the result of the City Clerk's prima facie review of the petition signatures or the City Clerk's acceptance of the petition for filing.

TOTAL NO. OF SECTIONS RECEIVED: 75

TOTAL NO. OF SIGNATURES PER PRIMA FACIE EXAMINATION: 1,773
